PASTOR'S CORNER

Happy Epiphany to one and to all! In our culture Epiphany is not that big of a deal, but I once got to experience the holiday in Spain. In Spain, the Magi are the ones who bring gifts which makes sense. They brought Our Lord gifts, why not the little ones among us now? They ate special feasts based on local seafood and spent time with their family in addition to giving gifts. It was a special time.

We can make it a special time here too by celebrating the day with our family. We could give a small gift and recognize the specialness of the first Gentiles entering into the mystery of Jesus come in the flesh. Of special note, is the fact that these wise men were most likely not that familiar with Jewish customs and traditions, they probably had not read the Old Testament. No one really knows why they were looking for the coming of Our Lord in the stars. That is a mystery known to God. But what we do know is that they were welcomed, not because they brought gifts, but because they came in faith. That is the same faith that we should all bring now when we come to Mass.

Also, we recognize the truly special nature of the gifts that they brought, each one was symbolic. The gold symbolized the kingly nature of Jesus: Lord at His Birth. The myrrh symbolized the death that Jesus would endure. The frankincense was widely used in the worship of deities, and thus appropriate for Jesus who was God in the flesh.

Lastly, this year the Baptism of the Lord will be celebrated on January 8.

Happy Epiphany

Fr. Samuel Moses Brown

ST. EUGENE'S CATHEDRAL SCHOOL

The school enjoyed their Christmas break and are back to work. Remember that St Eugene's School is a faith based alternative to local public schools. Catholic schools exist to form young persons in Christ and in culture. The formation in culture entails building the intellectual, emotional, and physical capacities of each student for responsible life in society. Contact Daisy at (707) 545-7252 or go to our website steugenesch.org to reserve your place for the 2024-2025 school year.
