PASTOR'S CORNER

Greetings in Christ Jesus Our Lord!

In the Gospel of Mark, we periodically have little sections wherein Mark gives us a resume of what has been happening in general. These small sections let us know that Mark is not recording every single thing that Jesus does, in particular all the mundane stuff of ordinary living. These sections also let us know that there are other healings that Jesus performed that Mark does not record, but that do help us to understand how Jesus became so popular so fast. People were attracted to Him for the purpose of healing. In that process, they also come to understand more and more of who He is: the Messiah. That revelation should be something that grows within each of us.

God bless you all,
Fr. Samuel Moses Brown

ANNUAL DIOCESAN MINISTRY APPEAL

As we come to the Spring, we also come to realize that it is AMA season! We have a shared work as Catholics in our parish and in our Diocese. I want to first note that the money raised in the AMA appeal is for the annual ministries alone. In other words, this money is never used for other purposes, such as legal fees or lawsuit settlements. This money is primarily used for diocesan ministry needs that are greater than one parish, such as the schools office, youth ministry, preparation for marriage, and the tribunal. These are needs that we have all together as the Diocese of Santa Rosa.

Over the next couple of weeks, I am asking you to prayerfully consider your gift to the AMA this year. Any money above our goal is going to be refunded to the parish and can be used to make improvements in the space that we all use. I ask you to be generous with the Church while knowing that your generosity springs from hearts on fire with the love of God.

God bless you all,
Fr. Samuel Moses Brown

EMAIL AND TEXT SCAMS

Dear Parishioners, please be on alert for emails or texts purportedly coming from a priest or employee of St Eugene's Cathedral or School asking for money, assistance with gift cards or requesting your personal information. No priest, school or parish employee will communicate with you personally with such requests. If it looks odd, do not respond! Feel free to come to the parish office with any questions or concerns.
