PASTOR'S CORNER

In the Gospel of Mark, the Transfiguration is a pivotal moment after Peter has declared Jesus to be the Christ which happens in Mark 8:27-30. Before that in the Gospel of Mark, Jesus demonstrates that He is mighty in word and deed by healing people, expelling demons, and doing things that God alone would be able to do. Mark wants his readers to believe that Jesus is God in the flesh, sent to heal us of our sins. However, immediately after Peter states that Jesus is the Christ, Jesus predicts His Death. The disciples are understandably uncomfortable with this reality and would rather not hear such things. They naturally become afraid. In response, Jesus shows three of them His future glory and theirs as well. Understandably, they do not understand what they are seeing and become confused. Jesus asks not to talk about this until His Resurrection, because only then will it make any sense.

How many times have you had a moment when things did not make sense, and yet later in retrospect, God was able to show you a new way? This is an experience common to the disciples of the Lord and we always give God the glory.

Sincerely, your pastor,
Fr. Samuel Moses Brown

ST EUGENE SCHOOL – PRINCIPAL'S CORNER

After a successful Open House kick off, St. Eugene's Cathedral School has started its registration process for the 2024-25 school year. Applications are available at the school office, by phone or on our website www.steugenesch.org - "Admissions". If you would like to take a closer look at our campus, contact Daisy Tamayo (707) 545-7252.

CATHEDRAL BOOKS & GIFTS

"We can do the work of Lent if we recognize it is a work from God. If we allow him to work in us through the healing power of the sacraments, and if we strive, then, to live up to the gift we've been given, God is unstinting in the grace he gives. We're the problem. We're the ones reluctant to receive what's good for us." - Scott Hahn

The store can assist you in fulfilling your Catholic needs: books, medals, rosaries, special gift items for the Sacraments, statues and a myriad of items pertaining to Catholicism. Celebrate the Lenten Season with the many resources we have available to help guide you through the Lenten journey. Also consider offering your time and talent as a Volunteer, in supporting this worthwhile endeavor. Contact Nancy Hoyer at 707-542-0250.

ANNUAL DIOCESAN MINISTRY APPEAL

As we come to the Spring, we also come to realize that it is AMA season! We have a shared work as Catholics in our parish and in our Diocese. I want to first note that the money raised in the AMA appeal is for the annual ministries alone. This money is never used for other purposes, such as legal fees or lawsuit settlements. This money is primarily used for diocesan ministry needs that are greater than one parish, such as the schools office, youth ministry, preparation for marriage, and the tribunal. Over the next couple of weeks, I am asking you to prayerfully consider your gift to the AMA this year. Any money above our goal is going to be refunded to the parish and can be used to make improvements in the space that we all use. I ask you to be generous with the Church while knowing that your generosity springs from hearts on fire with the love of God. Fr. Samuel Moses Brown
