St. Eugene Parish encourages parishioners to use offertory envelopes. They are a long standing tradition and provide many benefits such as convenience, privacy, and serve as a reminder of special collections. Stop by the parish office to pick up your “starter envelope” set. You will be assigned a unique number and new envelopes will be mailed to your home. Many parishioners also donate online thru our website or have their bank mail a recurring check. All donations are recorded and a year-end donation statement can be sent to you for tax preparation. Also, please register/update your information with the office so we can provide all your sacramental and religious needs.

FROM THE PASTOR

Zeal for your house will consume me. What a beautiful thought for all of us to keep in mind. We should desire to keep our Church in tip top shape, while acknowledging that the interior temple also has immense value. We seek to keep our heart and mind free from sin regardless of its origin. The first reading gives us a sure guide to our conscience. Please take a moment sometime this Lent to review the Ten Commandments, going over them slowly and carefully to review your conscience. Also, remember that the Catechism has great information on the moral life in the third section.

May God bless us all,
Fr. Samuel Moses Brown

CATHEDRAL BOOKS & GIFTS

The month of March is dedicated to St Joseph. We are also in the Season of Lent - a time marked for deep reflection into our lives and amending our relationship with God. The here and the now is all we have to decide on how we want to spend our eternal life. Visit the bookstore for tools to help you during this powerful month of prayer and atonement. Reach out to Saint Joseph and the Blessed Virgin Mary to help you receive the grace to make this Lent one of your very best.
