

THE CATHEDRAL OF ST. EUGENE

Saint Eugene's Cathedral Parish, under the leadership of the Bishop of Santa Rosa, is a community of people united through faith, worship, and service. As disciples, we are empowered through grace to proclaim and explore God's word, to celebrate the mysteries of His redemptive action in history, to honor the traditions of the Catholic Church, to foster personal spiritual growth, and to promote fellowship within and beyond our parish. As members of civil society, we are instruments of peace, justice, reconciliation, and service to others.

From the Pastor Third Sunday of Easter

Have you ever noticed how arguments against the Resurrection of Jesus do not really make sense? People can be dismissive of Our Lord's Resurrection by simply thinking of it as a nice story. Once upon a time I heard a non-Catholic preacher say that he thought that the stories of the Resurrection of Jesus were allegories of how we can have better lives, but not actual new and eternal life. In short, he thought that it was a nice idea. We should not be interested in nice ideas, but rather we should be interested in the truth. The truth is that the stories of the Resurrection of Jesus are meant to convince us of the reality of the event. Jesus talks with the Disciples, He has them feel His Body, He eats in front of them. Luke wrote this story because he believed that it really happened and he is inviting us to believe that as well. The life that Jesus offers us is not a literary device or a way to live a better life. It is real and true new life that He offers to us who believe. It's not just a nice idea. It's the truth.

Your Pastor,

Very Rev. Samuel Moses Brown

Del Pastor Tercer Domingo de Pascua

¿Ha notado alguna vez cómo los argumentos en contra de la Resurrección de Jesús no tienen realmente sentido? La gente puede despreciar la Resurrección de Nuestro Señor simplemente pensando que es una bonita historia. Una vez escuché a un predicador no católico decir que pensaba que las historias de la Resurrección de Jesús eran alegorías de cómo podemos tener una vida mejor, pero no una vida nueva y eterna. En resumen, pensaba que era una idea bonita. No deberíamos interesarnos por las ideas bonitas, sino por la verdad. La verdad es que los relatos de la Resurrección de Jesús pretenden convencernos de la realidad del acontecimiento. Jesús habla con los discípulos, les hace palpar su Cuerpo, come delante de ellos. Lucas escribió este relato porque creía que había sucedido de verdad y nos invita a creerlo también a nosotros. La vida que Jesús nos ofrece no es un recurso literario ni una forma de vivir mejor. Es una vida nueva, real y verdadera que Él nos ofrece a los que creemos. No es sólo una idea bonita. Es la verdad.

Su Pastor,

Very Rev. Samuel Moses Brown
