THEOPHILOS by Catholic fiction writer, Michael O'Brien. St. Luke spoke to a man named Theophilus, but no one knows who he was. O'Brien's imagination brings him to life in an engaging story about ancient civilizations and religions, good and evil, the mysterious interaction of faith and reason and the power of love over death.

HER MOTHER'S HOPE by Sebastopol author, Francine Rivers. This saga about four women explores the complicated relationships between mothers and daughters over several generations, beginning at the turn of the 20th century. This Christian novel is loosely based on the author's family. It is an unforgettable story about family and faith, dreams and disappointments and the resilience and tenacity of love.
