

Lectors Notes March 2010

The greeting before Mass has been reinstated. You will find a copy on the lectern. Please read it three minutes before mass time and then quickly join the priest for the opening processional, taking the Gospel book with you. If the Deacon is present, you do not walk in procession and may take your place at the Lector's chair.

All Lectors on March 6-7, 13-14 & 20-21 (the 3rd, 4th & 5th Sundays of Lent) are to read Cycle A readings which are in your Cycle C workbook.

We have trained five new lectors from our youth group: two at 7:30 am Mass and three at 5:30 pm Mass. They are a welcome addition to our ministry. I wish to remind them here to review their instructions before their assigned dates, especially concerning our dress suggestions. Call me any evening if you want any info re: the ups and downs at the lector chair.

All lectors are requested to line out your name on the schedule in the sacristy before mass. The priest likes to know ahead of time if he has a lector.

Once in a while, someone may hand you a petition or an announcement to be added to what is listed. You must give it to the priest. Never add anything without priest approval.

Thank you for all your good "storytelling" in the past, and thank you to the five new storytellers for joining us. Shalom! Barb Taylor

Mass Teams

Saturday 4:30 PM	Sunday 7:30 AM
1) Mary Lou Delaney	1) Dan Galvin
2) Frank DeMartino	2) Jeff Woodwoth
3) Armond Nirdlinger	3) Jon Stark
4) Thomas P. McCarthy	4) Chelsea Bricker
5) Gary Moore	5) Kelly Righetti
Sunday 9:00 AM	Sunday 10:30 AM
1) Joe Dietzen	1) Diane Drew
2) Cathy Pinney	2) Howard Fraga
3) Henri Komrij	3) Ed Ronchelli
4) Barbara Beatie	4) Mike Hanlon
5) Lori Pandolfo	5) Peter Kiep
6) Warren Schneider	6) Juanita Russell
	7) Lety Assad
Sunday 12:00 PM	Sunday 5:30 PM
1) Bob Zeni	1) Alison Harsch
2) Elizabeth McKee	2) Catherine Buse'
3) Joyce Rehkugler	3) Daniel Pham
4) Mike O'Callaghan	4) Ray Giampaoli
	5) Andy Chang
	6) Jess Scharfen
	7) Merlin Porter